NOOM DRAUGHTMAN STOOL

DESIGNED BY ALEGRE DESIGN

The enormous versatility and personalization capacity of Noom, designed by the Alegre Design studio, allows this line to fit into areas that include lobbies, waiting areas, meeting rooms and hotels, among others. And it achieves this thanks to chairs, armchairs, benches with an affable and transverse design available in a wide variety of options in terms of seat and structure, from armchairs with metal and wooden bases to high benches for counter and restaurant bar.
